STUDENTS CROWD BURSAR'S OFFICE ON FIRST PAY DAY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Madison, Nov. 21.—Eleven hundred students will be in line in front of the bursar's office to await their turn to receive their first payment on the education bonus. Officials at the university are making arrangements for the payment of the bonus on the first pay day. The bonus is a check for $50, a month's pay in the army, and thirty-five thousand dollars was the total payroll for the university students.

PLATFORM KEEPS CITY SEWER FROM BEING INTOXICATED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Zion City, Ill., Nov. 21.—From a platform six feet high 138,997 bottles of 24 percent beer today were emptied into a specially built trough that ran to an open sewer. Mayor W. H. Glendon poured the first bottle, and Chief of Police Theodore Becker and his aids finished the operation. The ceremony was postponed several days ago to permit construction of the platform and trough so as to prevent "contamination" of the city's streets. The empty bottles were sold to a junk dealer for $2.18.

SWEEPING CUT IN TRAINS LOOMS DUE TO COAL SHORTAGE

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 21.—The increasing coal shortage today had begun to make itself felt in the nation's food supply, with the further prospect of a sweeping curtailment of passenger trains within 24 hours. As approximately 425,000 bituminous coal miners rounded out three weeks of idleness it became known, through a statement here by the regional coal committee, that the big Chicago packing plants "have about two weeks' supply" of coal left, and that "when they have used that they will not be able to release any coal to them."

DEFENSE IN IVES MURDER TRIAL TO PLAY TRUMP CARD

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
West Bend, Wis., Nov. 21.—The defense in the Ives murder trial was expected to play its trump card today by putting Mrs. Almena Ives, wife of Raleigh Ives, on the stand to verify her husband's story of her marriage. The defense offered B. F. Boreson, attorney, to testify that Mr. Ives was extremely nervous during the days before the shooting, when he visited the law office several times daily.

TRADE RING ANXIOUS OVER HIGH EXCHANGE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Nov. 21.—The condition of the exchange is causing anxiety in trade circles, as the prevailing rates mean that a tremendous premium has to be paid by British buyers for goods imported from the United States. The rate this morning was called at $4.05, on an easier money market in New York, than there is a backbone in the market, while the recent uneasiness caused by the constant declining of the non-ratification of the peace treaty. The rate, according to opinion here, is likely to be unstable until the treaty question is settled and official action is taken regarding the granting of credits. The money market is gradually tightening, daily loans which are being made are commanding five percent, with the floating supplies insufficient. Borrowers are forced to pay the Bank of England at a high rate, but that money will be scarce.

SAMSON CO. BUILDS LARGE STORM SEWER

Construction of a mammoth concrete storm sewer at the Samson plant was begun yesterday. The sewer is being constructed to empty into the river at a point half-way between the Monterey and Jackson street bridges on the old Jackson street right-of-way. The sewer plant recently purchased by the Samson company. The main sewer will extend the entire length of the Samson property. The large amount of roof space of the plant has made necessary the construction of a storm sewer of more than usual size. J. A. Craig says today.

Construction has been commenced at the river bank to work toward the plant. Permission to dig the main under the St. Paul railroad tracks has been secured.

ROCK COUNTY RAISES 70,000 FOR COLLEGES

Rock county has raised more than $70,000 for private colleges in this state according to late reports. Although the subscription list may fall short of the county's quota of $150,000 the spirit of co-operation among the colleges, both Catholic and Protestant, and the state-wide effects of the educational program associated with the campaign should yield wonderful results in the end, is the expression of workers.

The percentages in which the money raised by the campaign of the Wisconsin Colleges Associated will be divided among the nine private colleges is as follows: Lawrence, 345; Marquette, 167; Beloit, 156; Ripon, 128; Milwaukee Downer, 120; Carroll, 107; Milton, 95; Campion, 93; Northland, 92.

NEWS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

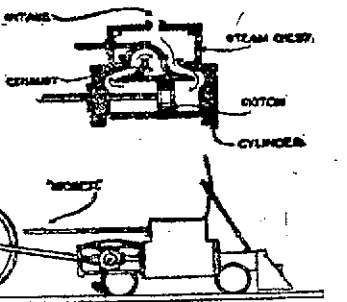

"Kickers" On a Locomotive

By Grant M. Hyde
"What are those 'kickers' on the side of the drive wheels of a railroad locomotive? And those rods that kick up and down outside the big, heavy driving rod?"

"They are part of the valve-mechanism that opens and closes the valves to let steam into the cylinders. To understand them, you must know what makes a locomotive run."

"The engine of a locomotive are the big cylinders that you see on each side just below the boiler—right back of the cowcatcher. Each of these engines is a big cylinder. Like one of the cylinders in an auto engine, and inside is a piston that is pushed back and forth by steam as it is let into one side or the other. To let the steam into one end and then into the other—back and forth—there is a system of valves just above the cylinder. When the engine opens the valve that is open, and pushes the piston one way; when it closes the valve on the other side, and the steam pushes the piston back."

"A piston rod, working through the end of the cylinder, is connected by drive rods to the big drive wheels to turn as the piston is pushed back and forth. The two engines on each side of the locomotive work together because the drive wheels are fastened solidly to their axles and one cannot turn without the other. The escaping steam puffs out through the smokestack and you can picture the moving pistons by counting the puffs—four puffs for each time the wheels go around and since each of the two engines puffs twice to turn the wheels once—and they do not work together.

"If it is about 20 feet around a locomotive drive wheel and that much distance is covered during four puffs, can you figure the number of puffs per mile?"

"OLD MEN MADE YOUNG"
"There was at this moment in France two old men to whom I have restored youthful vigor by grafting upon them certain glands taken from young men. The operation is simple. A local anesthetic is used. One cuts open the skin, introduces the tissue and sews up the incision. Nature completes the process by assimilation."

This astounding statement was made by Dr. Serge Voronoff, one of the leading experimental surgeons of the day and holder of the important post of director of the physiological laboratory of the College of France, whose recent lecture on rejuvenation by grafting caused much stir in Paris.

LAW 1,400 YEARS OLD
DECIDES BEE DISPUTE

Bath, Eng.—A decision which depended on a law 1,400 years old was given in the County Court when Judge James had to rule whether or not the owner of bees which leave their hive and swarm some distance away is entitled to regard them as his property. James Barstone claimed damages from Herbert Rummage, a neighbor, for a swarm of bees which Rummage is alleged to have seized.

The judge said it had been clear for hundreds of years under a law laid down by the Emperor Justinian, that a swarm of bees belonged to a man as long as they were in his sight, and could easily be pursued. Otherwise they became the property of the first person who saw them. The law, he said, was just as it was hundreds of years ago and he decided for the defendant.

BRIDE OF TWO DAYS ASKS SUPPORT ORDER

Philadelphia, Pa.—Mrs. Easter Kress, a domestic of two days, went into the domestic relations branch of the Municipal Court and made an application for an order for support against her husband, Charles G. Kress, a University of Pennsylvania student and a son of a banker of Johnstown, Pa.

Mr. Kress filed a suit in the Common Pleas Court for the annulment of the marriage on the ground that it was brought about on "force and coercion." Mrs. Kress at once said she would fight such a proceeding. The student-husband served with an ambulance unit in France. He was wounded and reported among the missing. He met the actress two years ago while she was playing in a theater in Allentown.

RETURN OF THE TANGO

London, Eng.—Dancing this season is marked by an attempt to revive the tango. This is especially noticeable on the Continent, where the efforts of the tango made with a view to freeing it from what are regarded as "bad interpretations." In this country, where dancing is making a bold bid for popularity, a similar attempt, though comparatively feeble, is also noticeable.

For instance, there is one particular new waltz in which tango movements are being used.

How to Earn Money Outside of School

Around the Garage
By J. H. Millar

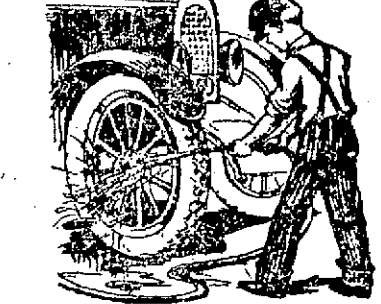

"We don't want any boys around this garage," growled Mr. Tompkins, of the Standard Motor Company. "They are just as likely as not to run one of the cars away or take off half the engine to see what the other half looks like."

"What boy did you say 'did that'?" inquired Mr. Peyton as he stepped into his seven-passenger machine.

"None, we never gave one a chance."

Perhaps Mr. Tompkins was right and again perhaps he was not. Nevertheless, there are a whole lot of boys—the boys that will someday be the engineers and managers of the country's industries—who know much more about engines, mechanics, and motors than the very men who own and drive the cars. Such boys are the ones who should look for work "Around the Garage."

It may be a business of washing regularly the machines in the different private garages of the neighborhood; it may be keeping the garage in order; it may be tending to the gasoline, oil, and spare parts; there is plenty to be done. Such jobs make a boy a friend of a car so that before long he becomes competent to make minor repairs and thus gradually learn about the motor.

What One Fellow Did.
Mr. Peyton, the man who was not skeptical about boys, had tried one. Harry Jackson lived on a side street a few blocks back from the Peyton residence. Two summers before, when Mr. Peyton was a boy, he would be tinkering around the garage, Harry would wander up the alley and stand with his hands in his pockets watching. As the boy and he became better acquainted, he helped wash or dust the machine, fill the radiator, and do other odd jobs just for the fun of it.

The next summer Harry was employed as handy man. After school started he still kept the job. He had to keep it, he said, because he had such a valuable help that Mr. Peyton couldn't do without him. He saved many dollars in garage bills.

These handy days are days when there is much to do around a garage. Look for it!

SCIENCE AND DRINK

London, Eng.—Prof. D'Abernon, the chief speaker at the meeting of the Society for the Study of Intemperance, at the Medical Society's rooms in Chandos street, said there were three main aims to secure a sound system of drink control:

1. To avoid continuous drinking of alcoholic liquors which is apt to occur with uninterrupted drinking hours.
2. To discourage the use of beverages of excessive alcoholic strength.
3. To avoid drinking alcohol on an empty stomach.

To express it more briefly, the governing principle of physical control should be discontinuity of drinking hours and dilution of alcohol, including the specially important sort of dilution secured by food. Much of the lesson of war-time restrictions was that the question: "How the Nation Drinks" is even more important than the question: "What the Nation Eats." Regulate on sound physiological lines the modes and times and circumstances of drinking, and, within reasonable limits, the amount of consumption may be left to the operation of ordinary economic forces.

DOG KILLS BOY

London, Eng.—While playing with a pet dog at Litchfield the four-year-old son of Private Elliott, of the 1st Buffs, was knocked into a tub of hot water by the dog and fatally scalded. The barking of the dog, after the tragedy, attracted members of the Elliott family, who hurried to a hospital with the boy, who died shortly after reaching there.

SAMSON PLANT BUYS 10 ACRES ADJOINING SOUTH CITY LIMITS

Purchase of an additional 10 acres of land has been effected by the Samson Tractor company according to information given out today by J. A. Gruber, president. The newest acquisition was purchased from the South Janesville Improvement association, a company organized several years ago for the purpose of developing that section of land located in proximity to the Northwestern railroad shops south of the city. The tract acquired consists of a rectangular strip located just outside the city limits and adjoining that portion of the Samson company known as the old Spauld property. It lies near the interurban line to Beloit and the C. & N. W. right-of-way. Although outside the city limits, the land will be platted in with the remainder of the Samson property to be used eventually for extensions of the plant.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Eliza Haselton.—The body of the late Mrs. Eliza Haselton will arrive in this city tonight accompanied by her son, F. C. Haselton of Hartford, Conn., at whose home the death occurred. Funeral services will be held at Oak Hill chapel, Second street, at 10:30 o'clock. Rev. J. A. Meirose will have charge of the service.

Mrs. Pernellia Groesbeck.—The funeral services of the late Mrs. Pernellia A. Groesbeck, were held yesterday afternoon from the home of her niece, Mrs. Luella Hill, 715 Cornelia street, Rev. J. Hart Truesdale officiating.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. Orville Morse, Frank Jackson, Fred Bakesie, and William Brunson. Mrs. Groesbeck was the widow of Abram D. Groesbeck who died in December 1877 and has been a resident of this city for over 45 years. Surviving to mourn her loss were her son, John H. Groesbeck and granddaughter, Minnie J. Groesbeck, of Johnson; a sister, Mrs. S. M. Kingman; a nephew, J. J. Kingman; a niece, Mrs. Edith Korn, Washington, D. C.; and a niece, Mrs. Luella Hill of this city. She has made her home with the latter for several years.

Looking Around

RESIDER LEAVES CITY.—F. J. Resler, district organizer of the Wisconsin college Associated who has been stationed in this city for the past month directing the campaign in the city of Janesville and Rock county, left for Milwaukee this morning where he will report to campaign headquarters at the Pfister hotel.

PLANS "X" WORK.—J. K. Arnot, county "Y" secretary, was at Milton yesterday, where more extensive plans for "Y" work for the coming winter season are being discussed. It is understood that Milton will send one or more delegates to the Older Boys' conference to be held at Sheboygan Nov. 28, 29, 30.

PONDA CASE ADJOURNED.—The case against De Lancey Ponda, truck driver charged with manslaughter, was adjourned without a hearing date fixed when called in municipal court today.

SOUGHT IN CHICAGO.—Mrs. Lela La Sure was being sought in Chicago today by police as the result of information given the local police last night by a neighbor who said she saw her take a train for Chicago. She left her home mysteriously Tuesday afternoon and has not been heard from since.

BICYCLE STOLEN.—"The first bicycle to be stolen in Janesville in several weeks was reported to police last night as having been taken from 715 Cornelia street.

CITY CLERK ON DUTY.—City Clerk J. P. McCue was on duty once more at the city hall today. He tore his neck on a nail while heaving coal and was confined to his home for two days.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—John Schell and Louise A. Hanson, both of Janesville, applied yesterday at the office of the county clerk for license to marry. Gilman Grunwald, Spring Valley, and Cora I. Onsgard, Orfordville, also applied.

LUNCH CAR TO OPEN.—A lunch car to be known as the "De Luxe Lunch" will open for business next Monday on the corner of Milwaukee and High streets. Jack Aldrich and George Benwitz, two local men, are the owners.

GLUE CLUB TO MEET.—Special meeting of the Janesville Glue club this evening at 8 o'clock at the Gazette. Two matters of importance will be brought up.

Free Skimmed Milk Whey.—We want from 5000 to 10,000 pounds more milk per day. Skim milk whey free to farmers who bring in their milk, pound for pound, a pound of whey for each pound of milk you bring in.

Remember, this concern is well rated and you will get your milk checks every month.

C. OF C. SEEKS NOTED FRENCH SOLDIER AS LUNCHEON SPEAKER

Arrangements are being completed whereby it is expected that the members of the Janesville Chamber of Commerce will hear an address by one of the members of the French High commission now visiting in this country. George F. Wells, manager of the local chamber, announced this morning that efforts were being made to induce Lieut. Vincent de Wierzbicki, a French officer, to address the members of the chamber at the regular luncheon at the Myers hotel, Monday, Dec. 1.

Lieut. de Wierzbicki, who was born in France in 1883, has spent many winters in this country, lecturing in the east. He spent several years in Italy.

Lodge News

The Benitable Fraternal Union will give a dance for members and their friends at their meeting Monday night in the hall formerly occupied by the Spanish American War Veterans in the Eagles' block. All members are requested to be present as a class of candidates will be initiated and other important business transacted. The dance will commence at 9 o'clock and will be free.

Janesville Lodge No. 55, F. and A. M., will meet in special communication this evening at 7:30. Work in the E. A. degree. Visiting brothers welcome.

The Past Noble Grand association of the Rebekah lodge met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Nellie Hagen, Grubb apartments. Twelve members attended instead of the regular time because of Thanksgiving.

There was no meeting of the Moose lodge last evening owing to the absence of two officers.

Business was transacted at the regular meeting of Rebekah lodge, No. 171, last evening in the West side I. O. O. F. hall. The fair which was to have been a feature of the entertainment was postponed.

Janesville chapter No. 5, R. A. M., Masonic order, met last evening in the hall of the Rebekah lodge. Seventy-five members enjoyed the dinner at 6:30 o'clock. Regular work followed the dinner.

Be Fair to the Kiddies

When your boy or girl grows up they will have many problems in the handling of money.

It is not fair to them to let year after year pass without learning to earn and spend money for them selves.

The ability to spend money sensibly is worth a great deal. To understand the value of a dollar and to save a part of all the money that one earns is absolutely necessary if you hope to win.

The young folks like to have their own bank accounts. We enjoy having them as our patrons too. Let them open an account with us.

Dear Ol' Lon'on Is Featuring Suede and Leather in Newest Sport Suits

By ELOISE.

The sports costumes for the winter months are being displayed by many of the exclusive shops. While there is never so much interest shown in the sports clothes for winter as there is in the myriad styles of summer still in many sections of our country and Europe they are a most important part of the well dressed woman's wardrobe. In reality they are more important than the summer sports clothes because there is not such a variety of them and they can not be worn at all times and upon all occasions like so many of the silk skirts and dainty sweaters of the summer. A winter sports costume is built for comfort and is usually too warm and too severe to ever be worn for anything but the original purpose. This year the angora sets and tam o' shanters are popular accessories for sports suits or plaid skirts. Lucile, the famous London fashion designer who dictates to the fashionables of England, has brought forth these snappy walking and sports costumes for the fall and winter wear. It looks as though all who would be up to the minute in English must wear leather garments and Russian boots. The suit on the left is of brown ducan made with a short light skirt trimmed with buttons and four strips of narrow white kid. The coat is made on loose full lines and is also trimmed with the strips of white kid at the cuffs, high collar and bottom, while the lapels are faced with white kid. Tan Russian boots of suede and tan suede hat of close fitting lines complete the costume. A motoring costume is what Lucile calls the coat in the center. Plaid wool or warm autumn shades forms the short skirt, while a bright blue leather coat lined and trimmed with the plaid completes the suit. It is a waterproof belted model with large patch pockets and a very swaggy air. A leather hat to match is worn and Russian boots similar to those worn by the first model. Duvelty and serge combine to make the neat little suit at the right. It is attractively tailored, showing a plain skirt of the duvelty with a serge coat trimmed with squares, cuffs and a scarf collar of the duvelty. The short-sleeved pumpkins which have worn with it are a new idea which has not penetrated beyond New York in this country.

(By Associated Press.)

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 21.—Delegations of boxing writers and fight enthusiasts from many cities arrived in St. Paul this morning and paraded through the business sections behind a banner which read: "Middleweight Champion Mike O'Dowd and Mike Gibbons were making final preparations for their 10-round, bout here tonight."

Gibbons and O'Dowd were both under the required weight of 155 pounds, according to announcements made by their managers. The principals agreed upon "Gutty" Ulrich of St. Paul as referee, but there was a possibility that some other Twinkety arbitrator might be chosen at the last moment, partly because of a report that one of the members of the state boxing commission was opposed to the selection of Ulrich.

Thorne Recital to be Given at Library Tonight

Twenty-seven pupils of Miss Lois Thorne will give a piano recital at library hall this evening. In addition to the part which the children play, Miss Esther Barker will give three readings. They are: "The Little Tin Gee Goo," "The School Meant's Courtin'," and "Gardena." Mrs. Leslie Hildon will sing Cudman's "At Dawning." The program begins at 7:30 o'clock. No charge of admission will be asked. The public is invited.

Butter Sells for 70 Cents. Sheboygan—The present price of butter here is from 70 to 72 cents, highest since November, 1915. No relief is in sight, according to local grocers. On the contrary, it is feared the price will soar even higher.

Rivalry Is Renewed. Sheboygan—The old rivalry between Manitowish and Sheboygan in athletics will be renewed here when the shipping town sends its basketball team here to meet the Littleman five Friday night. A booster crowd will accompany the invading athletes.

FARMERS, LABORERS, HOLD JOINT MEETING

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, Nov. 21.—Representatives of farmer and labor organizations with a membership of more than 3,000,000 met here today for a two day conference on non-partisan cooperation in a joint legislative program. Officers of the Farmers' National council and the National Co-operative association issued the call for the meeting.

Carl S. Vrooman, former assistant secretary of agriculture, with "The Spirit and Method of Genuine Cooperation" as his subject, was announced as the principal speaker. Among the most important organizations represented at the conference, in addition to those whose officers stood sponsor to it, were: The National Non-Partisan League; American Society for Equity; National Gleaner Federation; Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and Colorado State Granges; Equity Co-operative exchange; Illinois, Pennsylvania, North Dakota, Wisconsin, and Minnesota Federation of Labor; Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; Plumb Plan League; Committee for Democratic Control of Railroads; and the Public Ownership League of America.

EXTENSIVE GOOD ROAD PROGRAM IS SLATED

(By Associated Press.)

Madison, Nov. 21.—Realizing the greatness of the road problem in Wisconsin, the state highway commission has called a conference of contractors, material men, machine manufacturers and public officials to meet at the capital December 3 and 4 to discuss ways and means of attacking the 1920 problem. The amount of work to be undertaken will amount to approximately $20,000,000, which is double the amount undertaken in 1919. The commission believes, however, that by proper setting of contracts, winter working crews, use of more machinery, and other methods, that more work can be done by the same number of men than is now done.

ANGELES TRIAL IS MOST IMPORTANT IN MEXICAN BANDITRY

(By Associated Press.)

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 21.—Gen. Felipe Angeles, intellectual leader of the Villista movement, famous as an artillery expert, faced trial by court martial in Chihuahua City, Mexico, today. The trial is considered by Mexican bandits as the most important held in that country during a decade of revolution and banditry.

Angeles, reputed inventor of the French 75 millimeter gun, which is considered the most efficient piece of artillery ordnance ever used, was captured by Gen. Gabrilino, Chihuahua leader, at Vallejo, Chihuahua, Wednesday last. Reports in circulation along the border today were to the effect that General Angeles would be accused of rebellion against his government and that the death penalty would be sought. Many Carranza officials were said to favor this disposition of the case as a warning to all rebel chieftains. Shortness of time between his capture and the date for the trial was pointed to as indicating the possible state in store for General Angeles.

Conjecture was rife as to the effect of the trial. Some authorities here believed his execution would be disastrous to the Carranza government in that a new revolutionary movement might follow. Villista sympathizers here today were outspoken with the opinion the bandit leader would make some demonstration over the capture of Angeles. Villista was last reported in the broken country southeast of Ojinaga, Chihuahua, on the international boundary gathering his forces for a new offensive within the next month. General Angeles was a graduate of Chapultepec, the military West Point of Mexico. He was sent to Europe on military missions by President Diaz and attended French artillery schools. He was the author of several military treatises, books that are used in European and new world military schools. He was decorated with the Legion of Honor by the French government for his work. Angeles cast his lot with the Madero revolution while still in Europe. He returned to be commander of Chapultepec. When Madero was assassinated Angeles was imprisoned but was released by Huerta and then banished. When Carranza and Villista split, Angeles, who had joined them, cast his lot with Villista. He quit the latter following Villista's raid on Columbus, N. M., which Angeles refused to countermand. Angeles then became an inspector of munitions for the French. He returned to Villista this year when the latter issued a manifesto that he was done killing Americans.

Lenient Sentence Asked

Washington, D. C., Nov. 21.—Many officials and private citizens of Washington and other cities have sent cablegrams to friends in Mexico urging them to persuade President Carranza to spare the life of General Felipe Angeles. The messages pointed out that Angeles served the allies with distinction during the European war as an inspector of munitions for France in this country.

SAMSON HEAD HOPES TO TAKE FIRST WITH SHEEP AT BIG SHOW

J. A. Craig, Samson company head, has purchased a prize sheep from a Peewaukee breeder with which he hopes to carry off first honors at the international livestock show which will be staged in Chicago the first week in December. The animal, a Mexican bred, is a fine specimen of its offspring and has little difficulty in winning blue ribbons at a number of state and county fairs this year.

With a newly acquired herd of 26 pure bred Holstein cattle Mr. Craig has just gone into the cattle industry in earnest. He effected a number of purchases at the Walworth breeders' sale recently securing several head of cattle from the famous Holstein herds of Howard Peck and Dickinson and Son, both of Lake Geneva.

All of the cattle and sheep which he has purchased is being kept at "Craighurst" farm a few miles east of the city off the Milwaukee avenue road.

BROTHERS IN CRIME

Ossining, N. Y.—Charles and Matthew Miller, the first two brothers to enter Sing Sing together for the same crime, have been granted the first remission they made to the prison authorities, which was that they be given the same kind of work. They were made knitters and placed side by side.

The boys, who are eighteen and nineteen years old, respectively, were sentenced to Orange County for robbery. They said they had witnessed a robbery in a movie and on their way home decided to try their hand at being highwaymen.

Sergeant Hamilton is the first member of the thirty-second division in the city to receive the star.

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON
Letters May be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young married woman with four small children, and I do not love my husband. I am in love with a man old enough to be my father. I know you will think it foolish, but I love him with all my heart, and although he has never said so, I know he returns my love. As the saying goes, "Actions speak louder than words." He is an officer of the law.

We always spoke and talked, until some time ago by mutual fault some-thing happened. He was angry and I was angry and does not speak always. I feel as though I should go mad. I know it is wrong, but I cannot help it. I would give anything to talk things over with him and get things settled, as I am very sorry for what I did, but he never would care for any other girl.

I am 17.

SNOW PLAIN.

You do not owe the young man an apology. Since you are so young, you should be free to go with different young men. Do not apologize and give him up willingly. If he is unreasonable, I believe that in time he will come back to you.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young man 18 years of age and I am in love with a girl who is 17 years old. She is very nice and she won't go with any other boys, but several times I have seen her heart made in kind to me. I believe that I don't want to make her angry in any way, but what shall I do?

B. W.

Let the girl go with other boys as much as she wants to. You cannot force her to care for you. Both you and she are too young to be thinking seriously of love.

Speak to the officer as you would

She Married an Average Man

By ZOE BECKLEY.

For a moment I didn't reply to Jim's remark that "in married life one generally has to choose between independence and happiness." I was thinking it over.

"It that is so," I answered, "it is because married life is wrong and not because independence is wrong. I have not yet given up hope, Jim, of making our marriage a partnership, in which you and I have equal rights to independent action and equal obligation to contribute."

"I am no tyrant, Ann. You may have all the independence you want in your own sphere. But when a woman goes out of her sphere—"

"Oh, Jim, I simply will not go over that ancient ground again, that eternal dispute about whether a woman's sphere is whatever she can do best. A wife might be able to keep a store well and not know how to make biscuits. Her husband might be an excellent cook and utterly fail in business. It's all too well established to argue about. This whole horrid discussion grows out of the fact that you have asked your mother to visit us without even telling me. We're getting away from the point."

"Mother is coming next Tuesday," said Jim, in a martyred voice.

"Where will she sleep?" I asked, cold resentment crowing out of me in the spare room, of course.

"We have no spare room, Jim. You mean of course, the room I work in, the only one."

"Yes, Ann," Jim, interrupted, in icy tones, "if your work is so difficult and delicate that you cannot leave it to the sitting room temporarily, I will not insist, of course, I can have mother stay at a hotel."

It was with the greatest effort I kept back the tears. I realize now they were tears of selfishness and anger. One is never so angry as when one is in the wrong. Now, however, young or not, I could not at the moment force myself to be amiable and yielding. I was too mad at Jim, at myself, at circumstances, at everything.

"No one will stay at a hotel, my dear," I said, my heart pounding with futile resentment, "unless it is made in kind to me. I believe that I don't want to make her angry in any way, but what shall I do?"

"You are very unreasonable. Mother will make no trouble. On the contrary, she will help you in a hundred ways. I don't think you would appreciate her kindness, instead of showing such an inhospitable spirit." Jim's reply was self-controlled and made in kindly tones. I felt ashamed of myself, yet exasperated beyond words with the whole situation.

Is there any four-room apartment in the universe big enough to accommodate a mother-in-law, a man, his mother, his wife and her work? The thought flashed into my mind that nine-tenths of all the friction in this world comes from people trying to live together. If I had my way homes would be built on the "cottage system," a little house for the husband, a separate one for the wife, and a separate one for each visiting relative!

But because I was ashamed of my unregenerate thoughts I crossed my arms and tried to tame myself into a forbearing, wifely mood.

What sort of woman is Jim's mother, I wondered, who would live with me?

The Wishing Plane

The children's friends had waited, hidden behind the boxes on the dock, for a couple of hours, when they finally noticed a motorboat coming toward the dock from far out in the bay. When it tied up to the dock, close to Signor Angelo's motorboat, out climbed the little old woman and three of the kidnappers. One recognized two of the men as ones he had seen hiding about the hotel. The men looked closely at Signor Angelo's face before they left the dock, even to the point of walking over to it and looking inside the little house on it. The boat was just an ordinary supply boat used by Signor Angelo to deliver goods to boats in the harbor, so the kidnappers could see nothing suspicious about it.

With the little old woman trailing along they went up into the city.

"There is no need for us to follow them," said Signor Angelo. "From what Como has seen, the children must be hidden out in the bay and not in town, and we might be seen if we tried to follow them. We will wait here until they come back."

The kidnappers and little old woman were gone a long time. While waiting for them Signor Angelo happened to think that the day was the one on which Captain Bravo was to tell the kidnappers whether or not he would pay them the $100,000 they asked for the return of the children. You remember the little old woman Captain Bravo two days to decide and said that one member of the band would stop him on the second day and give him a chance to send his answer.

"I don't believe any of them will try to talk to you today," said Signor Angelo. "They are too busy keeping themselves and the children hid."

"And I don't think they'll get the money, either," said Captain Bravo. "I feel sure we are going to get the children this time."

Just then Como, who had been keeping a sharp lookout over the top of the boxes saw the kidnappers and the little old woman coming back. Their arms were filled with bundles. "Just as I thought," said Como. "They came to Signor Angelo to get something to eat and, judging by the number of bundles they have, the children ought to get plenty to eat—"

If they give the children as much as they get themselves," he added.

The kidnappers and little old woman jumped into their boat and headed it out across the bay. When Signor Angelo thought that the kidnappers had forgotten all about the chance of anyone following them, he hurried over to Signor Angelo's boat, jumped in and asked the man running the boat to follow the other one.

"The kidnappers' boat kept straight on for two or three miles and then Como, watching it through a pair of spy glasses the man in the boat had given him, saw the kidnappers were looking back at them and talking excitedly. The leader, Como could make out, was using a pair of glasses, too, and probably had seen that the boat following them

THE DANGER OF BEING ALIVE (10)

Sooner or later, whenever I undertake to discuss the danger of being alive from the viewpoint of health, I am sure the subject of eggs strongly suggests itself to me. I have been many times struck forcibly and for the moment thoroughly amused with eggs as an admirable article of food too often prostituted to wasteful abuse. One occasionally finds eggs of persons so unsophisticated as to use eggs for shampooing the hair.

Popular Fallacy No. 1 is that raw eggs furnish greater nourishment than do cooked eggs. This is an error. The raw albumen of egg is not completely digestible by man; it contains a ferment which attacks the lining of the stomach, and the result is a ferment in the stomach. Therefore a portion of the raw white is passed through the intestines undigested and this accounts for the diarrhea sometimes produced when raw eggs are taken freely for a considerable period. An egg cooked, in any manner, or digested in the stomach, is more easily digested, more nourishing, more strengthening than an egg raw. The only reason why raw eggs are sometimes prescribed is that one without appetite may swallow many raw eggs in fluid form as so much medicine, and thus obtain nourishment, otherwise lacking. However, there is always some waste when an egg is taken raw.

P. K. No. 2 is that a soft boiled or poached egg is more easily digested than a hard boiled or fried or scrambled egg. If you gulp your eggs it is, if you eat them it is not. A very hard boiled egg, if it is well chewed is more quickly and easily digested than a very soft boiled egg which can't be masticated. In the case of digestion the egg is coagulated or curdled anyway, and boiling coagulates the egg albumen for your stomach. A fried egg, moreover, is just as easily digested as a hard boiled or soft boiled or poached egg. Likewise with eggs scrambled. If you know anything about food physiology, digestion, metabolism and eggs, I can assure the reader that he may take his eggs in whatever form he prefers, for they are readily assimilated in most any form except when served on a boiled shirt.

Eggs are meat as surely as beefsteak is. Sometimes the protein of egg (the white) seems to be more acceptable to the metabolism or nutritive needs of persons with certain diseases such as Bright's disease or arteriosclerosis, but not always. As a general working rule for the ordinary individual it may be understood that when eggs are on the bill of fare other kinds of meat are superfluous and usually injurious. Yes, at present prices I might say scandalous.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Fatuous Fancies.
I weigh 180 pounds, 55 inches tall, 29 years old. Can my weight be reduced? What should I do for my weight and height? Is it harmful to take a cathartic daily while on a reduction regimen? Is water taken between meals fattening? I eat an enormous quantity of water. Is a glass of hot water at bedtime a good habit? If reduced, provided it has half a lemon dissolved in it? I have been advised to take a glass of lemon juice every morning. (Mrs. G. W. M.)

ANS.—You are eight should be from 130 to 145 pounds. Of course any one can reduce superfluous weight to any desired extent within the normal limits. The cathartic is no more or less harmful than it would be under any other circumstances. No cathartic reduces weight with safety. Water is not fattening. The hot water with lemon without doubt does reduce weight unless perchance it diminishes appetite and encourages lighter breakfasting. The capsule you mention are not advisable. If you will accompany your request with a stamped addressed envelope a regimen for reducing will be mailed with my consent.

Books for Growing Daughters.
Please publish again the address where I can find the books "Life's Problems" and "Margaret the Doctor's Daughter." (Mrs. P. M. B.)

ANS.—"Life's Problems" is for girls 15 to 18 years old; the latter for girls 10 to 14. Copies may be obtained for 20 cents each from the American Medical Association, 535 N. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill.

Yeast Dry, If You Like.
I find it a little difficult to take yeast (for bread) and underweight in fluid form. I can readily take it by crushing the dry yeastcake and down with water or milk, after each meal. Will that have the same effect as yeast mixed with water or milk? (J. L.)

ANS.—Yes.

RECIPES FOR A DAY

Baked Egg Omelet (an economical way to use eggs)—Two eggs, one-half cup sweet milk, one-quarter cup bread crumbs, pinch of salt. Soak bread in milk, add beaten yolks and lightly whisked egg whites. Bake in buttered dish about 20 minutes.

Norwegian Pudding—Cook one-half pound prunes until soft and chop fine. Add one inch of stick cinnamon, two cups water, one-half cup sugar and the peel of one-half an orange. Simmer 10 minutes. Add three rounded tablespoons cornstarch and cook five minutes. Peel, move cinnamon and orange peel, chill and serve with cream. Delicious and appealing variation in cooking the inexpensive prune.

Cabbage and Celery Salad—Shred fine the required amount of cabbage and celery. Salt lightly and cover with sour cream dressing. Serve on salad plates garnished with strips of pimiento, pickled beet or bits of pickle from the pickle jar.

Jellied Fruit Salad—One-half pound Malaga grapes from which the seeds have been removed, one cup raisins, half a cup of nuts cut into pieces, and one-half cup halved English walnuts. Mold in lemon jelly, using one package. Arrange on leaf lettuce and garnish with maraschino cherries. Mayonnaise makes an attractive dish and with white wheat bread has much food value.

FOR MEATLESS DAYS.

Oysters en Surprise—Mash a sufficient number of potatoes to measure one quart. Divide into eight pieces. Flatten out one-half inch thick and lay in the center four medium-sized oysters, one medium-sized green pepper, one-quarter teaspoon of salt and pinch of white pepper.

Put over the potatoes, enclosing the oysters in the mashed potatoes. Then roll in flour and dip in beaten egg, then roll in fine crumbs and fry in a hot oven for five minutes to finish the baking.

Oysters a la Supreme—Look over 25 oysters very carefully to remove the bits of shell and lay on the cloth and pat dry. Now place in a sauce pan one cup of milk, three-quarters cup of oyster liquid, one-half cup of flour.

Stir to thoroughly dissolve the flour and then bring to a boil and add one medium-sized onion (grated), one medium-sized green pepper (minced fine), four tablespoons of finely minced parsley, one hard-boiled egg, juice of one-half lemon, one teaspoon well beaten and chop fine. Stir to thoroughly mix, and then add the prepared oysters, and cook for eight minutes. Serve on toast and garnish with finely minced parsley.

PERSONETTE

MARY GRAHAM BONNER
Wishes the world to know that the date of her birth is a year earlier in Who's Who than it was in real life. She is the fact that she told them the wrong one when they asked her, having, as she says, not even a dim memory of the event. Considering her girlishness, and the fact that her ambition to be a writer had to fight its way through the extreme conventionalities of a conservative social set, which decided that it was far her to walk meekly in the ways of a typical debutante, it is surprising indeed that she is in Who's Who at all.

She is the author of literally thousands of children's stories which are widely syndicated throughout the country, and have to be put into four books with more to follow. Most anyone would think that this was quite enough for an ambitious young literary person to do, but not so Mary Bonner. One of her readers who met her a short time ago could hardly believe that she was the author.

"But I see your name in so many different places," he said. "I see it on the covers of weekly reviews, I see it over learned articles in business magazines, and on children's books and stories, and feature stories, and even on bill boards."

"Yes, that's my name," returned Mary Bonner. "I've noticed myself that it does turn up here and there, especially on bills."

The Daily Novelette

SOME BUNCH!
"Men! Are you brave? Are you with me when we charge?"
"Yes!" they thundered—the valiant band.
"The death!" they all cried.
The captain stood intently gazing at his watch. Nervously, he awaited the time to give the command. Anxiously he looked at the men's faces. Was there fear written on them? At the dangerous charge they were about to make?

Each man knew the risk he ran; the almost certain hurt, if not death, that he faced.

But were they thinking of that—or of themselves? When victory was their goal? Were they? No! No! No! "Victory! Honor! Glory!" They were the things men fought and died for.

With relief the captain saw none of these things. He saw but eagerness to dash into the fray; confidence of ultimate success; the hardy fought and dearly won. And then—

"Ready? Go!"

And the Squadsman eleven rushed from their training quarters to the football field and conquered the Slab town team in 20 minutes. (See title.)

EVERBEST NUT MARGARINE

MADE IN ELGIN

Here is just the flavor that tickles the youngsters' palates the most. The cream of the pure white meat of the cocoanut, the delectable oil of the Virginia peanut, pasteurized whole milk—rich and fresh, delivered every morning to our door right from nearby farms.

You can't find a purer or more nutritious food than EVERBEST. Give the kiddies all they want—it's best for them.

Made in clean country air, far from the odors and dust of the city, under U. S. Government supervision, in a factory that is scrubbed and every utensil steam sterilized each day.

Just suggest EVERBEST to your grocer Today. He knows it's best too.

you have the manufacturer's guarantee on quality and price.

It's the same now as before and during the war. Our Government Bought Millions of Pounds.

Good morning, people!

Don't you like me pretty well now?

I thought you would. Most everybody who knows me likes Miss Individuality.

I'm very busy today. I'm supervising the sacking of MARSHALL'S BEST Flour. Some job, yes?

You know, that our flour isn't touched by a human hand from the time the wheat starts through the first "break" until it is put into the sack and sewed up tight and safe—all by machinery.

I'm very particular about cleanliness in my big mill. All reinforced concrete construction with hardwood floors kept clean as a lady's parlor. That's one thing that makes so many people swear by MARSHALL'S BEST Flour. No other like it. Buy a sack of MARSHALL'S BEST. Try it!

Budget Bill May Bring On Ministerial Crisis

[By Associated Press.]
Madrid, Thursday, Nov. 20.—The government has been unable to pass any budget bill in the Cortes met a week ago and unless it can induce the legislators to proceed with the measure, a ministerial crisis is probable. Opposition to the bill is partly attributed to the determination of socialists to keep the military question to the fore.

Marble Tablets of Rome Sanatorium Unveiled

Rome, Thursday, Nov. 20.—Marble tablets commemorating the construction of a sanatorium containing 1,200 beds for tuberculosis soldiers with contributions from the American Red Cross and Italian War Relief funds were unveiled here today. General Abbricci, minister of war, represented the government, while H. Nelson Gay, Boston, the historian, represented America.

ALL VICTIMS OF ECZEMA'S ITCH NEED POSLAM

It is Poslam's mission to relieve itching eczema's cruel distress and to restore the afflicted skin to its normal health. Comfort comes as soon as it is applied to the sore places. The concentrated healing power quickly shows. Each day should mark distinct improvement. So effective is Poslam that it has been used for pimples, scalp-itch, that just a little of it will do much. It's quality that is sold everywhere. For free sample write to Emergence Laboratories, 443 West 47th St., New York City. Urge your skin to become fresher, clearer, and softer. Use Poslam Soap, medicated with Poslam.

BE CAREFUL IN USING SOAP ON YOUR HAIR

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is just plain mild soap, such as Poslam, which is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair shines brightly and is soft and fresh looking. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

Sore Throat, Colds

Quickly Relieved by Hamlin's Wizard Oil

Hamlin's Wizard Oil is a simple and effective treatment for sore throat and chest colds. Used as a gargle for sore throat it brings quick relief. Rubbed on the chest it will often loosen up a hard, deep seated cold in one night.

How often sprains, bruises, cuts and burns occur in every family, as well as little troubles like earache, toothache, cold sores, canker sores, stiff neck and tired aching feet. Soothing, healing Wizard Oil will always bring quick relief. Get it from druggists for 30 cents. If not satisfied return the bottle and get your money back. For sore throat, constipation or have sick headache? Just try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills, 30 cents. Guaranteed.

If Thin and Nervous Try Bitro-Phosphate

While excessive thinness might be attributed to various and subtle causes in different individuals, it is a well-known fact that the lack of phosphorus in the human system is very largely responsible for this condition. It seems to be well established that this deficiency in phosphorus may be met by the use of Bitro-Phosphate, which can be obtained from any good druggist in convenient form.

In many instances the assimilation of this phosphate by the nerve tissue soon produces a welcome change—nerve tension disappears, vigor and strength return, the lack of energy and the whole body loses its ugly hollows and abrupt angles, becoming enveloped in a glow of perfect health and beauty and the will and strength to be up and doing.

Get Bitro-Phosphate. This phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, and lack of energy. It is a sure way to put on flesh should you extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

NEGLECTING THAT COLD OR COUGH?

Why, when Dr. King's New Discovery so promptly checks it

It's natural you don't want to be careless and let that old cold or cough drag on or that new attack develop seriously. Not when you can get such a proved successful remedy as Dr. King's New Discovery.

Cold, cough, gripe, croup does not resist this standard reliever very long. Its quality is as good today as it always has been—and it's been growing steadily in popularity for more than fifty years. 60c. and $1.20 a bottle at all druggists. Give it a trial.

Tardy Bowels, Inert Liver

They just won't let you put "pen" into your work or play. Sick headache comes from retaining waste matter and impurities in the bowels.

Feel right for anything—make the liver lively, the bowels function regularly, with Dr. King's New Life Pills. Smoothly yet positively they produce results that cleanse the system and make the liver and bowels respond to the demands of a strong, healthy body. Still 25c.—at all druggists. Try them tonight.

67 CASES LISTED FOR TRIAL IN TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT

Sixty-seven cases will come up for trial in the October term of the circuit court for this district presided over by Judge George Grimm, which will open at the county court house here November 24. The calendar will be ready for distribution by the clerk of the court tomorrow.

Two of the cases are for criminal offense: 36 are jury cases; and 29 are court cases.

CLAUSON EQUALS HIGH FOR CITY LEAGUE; TWO GOOD MATCHES

Despite the fact that Clauson of the Hub team rolled 243 last night, equaling the high individual mark of the City League for the season, the team dropped two games to a lucky Arcade. Clauson's run was a lucky streak, his other scores being 137 and 185. In the same match, Grove of the Arcade knocked down 229 of the equaling third highest score of the league. He was followed by his teammate, Nelson, who hit the maples for 228 and Newman, who struck for 210. Clauson made high average of 200.

The Ralls took on the Siegles last night for two wins. Siegles won their only game of the season by a margin of 15 points and in the final lost out by only 5 pins, and were otherwise hard struck in that they had high min of the match in Richards' 212. Cunningham was second high with 204.

THE SPEED AND THE PLACE AND THE GIRL

(The French language can be spoken so much more rapidly than English that it is used to great advantage in long distance telephoning.)

When parade and mess were over.

Drill, fatigue or K. P. done.

And you proudly promenaded.

In the village with Yvonne.

Stupefied you heard her chatter.

(Now and then you understood)

And you swore she "parleyed" faster

Than you thought a human could.

But when hated "quarters" sounded

(Call that many a romance slips)

Sometimes something somehow seemed to Check the ripple of her lips.

Gradually her lightning accents,

That confused you in the day,

Stumbled, faltered, hesitated,

Seemed to rest along the way.

Let them claim long-distance records.

And no doubt they have the right.

WE know French, says ex-Sgt. SOL.

When a madcap says "Goodnight."

Everybody, including the Russians, says an editorial writer, will be happy if we send our Reds back to Europe. And everybody, again including the Russians, says ex-Sgt. SOL, will be glad if the same transport brings back our men from Siberia.

WHERE IS THAT GUY?

You know, the Q. M. C. Captain—who said the war was costing him a fortune and if he ever got back to it'd be O'Yawke he'd rent a stable at Churchill's by the year?

Oh, you mean Bill Simmons?

Why, Si Thompson gave him back his old job in the General Store.

And the color-sergeant—who said he'd been hit with shrapnel and gassed and could have had red stripes if he'd taken the trouble to report for treatment, and refused a commission twice?

Hi? I saw him on Armistice Day in a Second Loole's uniform with a red chevron, and a campaign badge with two silver stars on it.

And the loony bird—

who said the officers did the best they could considering their training and the lack of water was four times as good as what the frogs got and the top was probably a good sport in civilian life?

That fella? He's started a society opposed to universal military training.

And the grouch in Battery F—who always won at craps and said he'd never enlisted if he hadn't been taken drunk while passing a recruiting station and the next time

Uncle Sam wanted him he'd have to come after him with a rope?

He signed up for foreign service a week after he'd spent his bonus.

WORDS FAIL

I yearn to write a touching song;

About the long, long trail,

About a hero slow and strong—

Alas, I fear I'll fail.

My masterpiece will ne'er be typed,

It's aggravating, very

I cannot sing, for someone's swiped

My rhyming dictionary.

Over 160 bowlers are lined up in the Janesville Bowling Association according to a statement made yesterday by Secretary Baumann.

Thus, with the 80 men in the Samson League, and the other teams and amateur pin knights, the city boasts of over 250 players, not to forget about 50 female fans.

One night was omitted from the schedule of the Industrial-Commercial league. It was December 13, when the Post Office will meet the Golden Eagle and the Police will match up against the Varsity Clothing Co.

Printing of the individual averages of the City League has created great competition among the players. "I'm going to pull my record ment. But some of the fellows let their enthusiasm rule their eye and started out with drops in their scores.

AMERICAN LEGION TO ENTER ATHLETICS; ELABORATE SCHEME

Chicago, Nov. 20.—That the American Legion is to become a powerful factor in both amateur and professional athletics in the United States became known as the day as the result of a series of conferences held in Chicago.

The plan launched calls for the division of the nation into eight American Legion athletic zones, with a regional director in charge of each, and a series of eliminations in each zone, the champions to meet in the finals at San Diego, Cal., next fall in what the Legion officials declare will be the greatest athletic tournament ever staged in America.

The division into zones with headquarters will be as follows:

New England States—Boston.

Atlantic States—New York.

South Atlantic States—Atlanta.

Mississippi Valley—Chicago.

Southern States—New Orleans.

Mountain States—Denver.

Pacific Coast—San Francisco.

The work of organizing each of these zones for participation in baseball, boxing, wrestling, track and field sports, football, bowling, tennis and

AMERICAN LEAGUE FIGHT IS GROWING

Chicago, November 21.—There probably will be two meetings of the American League held this year on the same day—Dec. 10—one in Chicago and the other in New York.

President Sam Johnson indicated this on Thursday as a result of the action of Harry Prazee, owner of the Boston club, Charles A. Comiskey of Chicago and Jacob Ruppert of the New York club, in issuing a call for the meeting to be held in New York.

President Johnson, who has been confined to his home because of an infected foot, declined to comment on the action of Messrs. Prazee, Comiskey and Ruppert, except to make this statement:

"The constitution of the American League provides that the annual meeting this year shall be held on Dec. 10. Our annual meetings for several years have been held in Chicago. It is quite likely our annual meeting will be held in Chicago this year."

The San Diego tournament is to be an annual affair, beginning on Nov. 1 or 2, and finishing on Armistice day Nov. 11. In addition to the athletic events, the legion will conduct an aviation meet, including racing events for both land and sea planes.

GAME APLENTY, BUT-TRESPASS SIGNS BAR EASTERN HUNTERS

BY BUD WILLIAMS

Real hunting is poor in the East this fall. Not because of the scarcity of game but because of the posted farms. It is not so difficult to find game of all sorts in New York, Pennsylvania, and Ohio, this fall, but to find a farm not posted is what is worrying the men with the guns.

Pennsylvania and New York states have some fine wooded country in which all sorts of game, even beaver, may be found. But the owners, resident and non-resident, have the land so boarded and posted that the hunters can't get in.

Pennsylvania with its quail season opening this month, after having been closed for five years, has few stories of any bags of the little birds. The quail is plentiful, but the land owners refuse to allow the hunters to shoot the birds, believing the little birds are bug hunters and useful on the farms.

And the hunters, who pay nice license fees annually, are beginning to let out welps of anguish, which is joined by the fishermen, who claim the streams are becoming polluted by manufacturing plants that the fish are being killed. However, the game commission of the various states are beginning to let it be known that the condition is improving.

Hundreds of thousands of fish are annually being placed in the streams of the east, and in several of the states, efforts are being made to clear the streams of pollution by means of an apparatus placed in the outlet pipes of the factory doing the polluting.

Ohio has tried the mechanical device and believes it is the remedy for the condition. The game commission there states the streams will be entirely cleared of pollution in a few years, and that fish will again be plentiful.

Huge tank cars, carrying mature live fish, are being used to stock the streams of the east. These tank cars are filled at the great lakes and the fish are kept in the tanks until they are restocked. And in a short time, the streams are again in shape for the sportsmen.

Davenport Man Could Hardly Walk Before He Took Tanlac.

"My first bottle of Tanlac did me more good than all other medicines I have taken put together," said James Pappas in a conversation with the Tanlac representative recently. Mr. Pappas lives at 204 West Grant St., Davenport, Iowa, and is a popular employee of the Athens Grocery Co.

"For over a year, before I began taking Tanlac," continued Mr. Pappas, "I had suffered with rheumatism in my ankles that at times the pain would be so severe I could hardly walk. My stomach was out of order and after eating, gas would form and bloat me up terribly and cause me no end of misery. I suffered from a chronic case of constipation, and every few days I had to be taking a laxative, and my liver was sluggish all the time. I had taken so many treatments and medicines that did me no good at all that I was beginning to think I was never going to find anything that would help me and I would just have to bear up under my troubles the best I could."

"Finally I began to notice about Tanlac in the paper and I saw where it was helping so many other people that I decided to give it a trial. Well, sir, by the time I had finished my first bottle I felt so much better that I had more hopes than ever before of getting rid of my troubles. So I kept right on taking Tanlac until now I have finished my fourth bottle, and feel almost like a new man. The rheumatism has disappeared altogether and I don't feel even a twinge of it now, and my kidneys were never in better condition. My digestion is perfect and my stomach is in such fine shape that I am not troubled in the least with gas forming any more. I have found Tanlac to be a good regulator for it has relieved my constipated condition and I never have to take a laxative of any kind now. I have been built up in every way, have gained in weight and strength, and when I get up every morning I just feel fine. Tanlac has certainly done me a world of good, and I intend to express my gratitude. I am going to always keep Tanlac in my house, and whenever I get the chance I am going to speak a word of praise for it."

INCOME TAX IN BELGIUM
London, Eng.—Belgium's income tax bill, which was recently adopted by the Chamber, levies a 10 percent tax on large fortunes. An income of more than $480 will pay a tax of 1 percent.

The Chamber voted a tax on professional incomes of 2 percent for the 1920-21 year, with an addition of one-half percent for specified increments above this amount.

Kidney Troubles Vanish With Use of Agmel, Sap of Mexican Plant

New York.—Physicians who have tested the sap of the Mexican rubber plant in the treatment of diseases of the kidneys believe that an important discovery has been made. Writing in La Esencia de Medicina, the leading Mexican medical journal, the editor says: "It is perhaps the only substance known up to the present time, in the whole world, having the power to radically and permanently cure Bright's Disease."

Reports of definite results in a large number of chronic and long standing cases of kidney trouble have created a persistent demand for this sap, which is popularly known under the name of AGMEL, and considerable quantities are being imported into the United States.

Some of the druggists who might be asked the more precise and who are constantly on the lookout for something that may be of real benefit for their customers, have already procured a limited amount of Agmel. Such a one is Smith Drug Co., of our local druggists, who will be glad to inform interested persons about it or free booklet describing it, and to make the sap, will be mailed by Agmel Sales Co., 4121 Union Square, New York City.

The Heavens in December

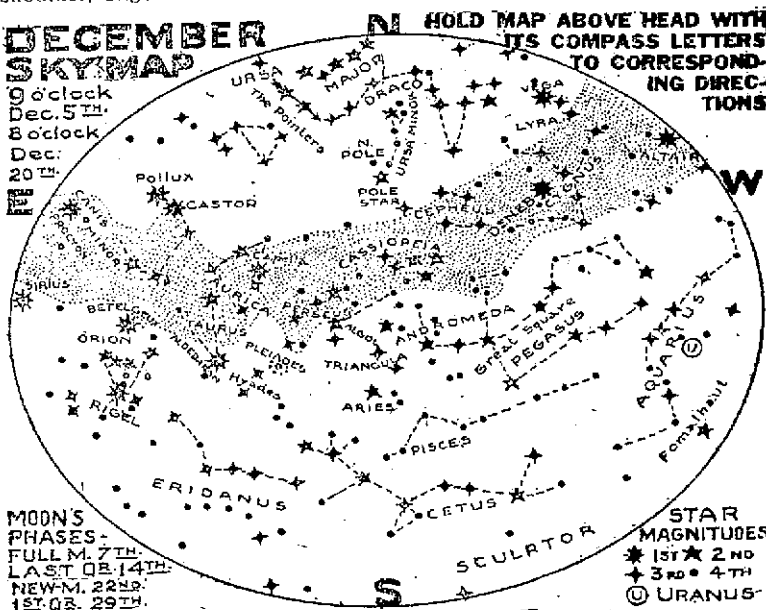

(By DR. C. S. BRAININ)
Columbia University Observatory Staff.

BY DR. C. S. BRAININ
Of the Columbia University Observatory Staff

The eastern half of the evening sky is resplendent with brilliant first-magnitude stars, we welcome back to our 9 o'clock map that part of the celestial sphere which contains Orion and its near neighbors with no less than eight first-magnitude stars. Nearest the meridian and highest above the horizon are capella of the constellation of Auriga and Aldebaran of Taurus, the former a beautiful clear white, the latter of rather a yellow tinge.

Orion itself is a group which is so unique in appearance that it is very easily recognized and fixed in the memory, as it contains the famous Belt of Orion. This is composed of three stars of only the second magnitude, but lying almost exactly along a straight line between the outer two; there is no other such arrangement in the heavens. About map time the Belt will be nearly horizontal, perpendicular to the horizon in the east, but as the stars rise the line becomes more horizontal. This, however, will not be found to interfere with the ease of locating the group.

Northward of the Belt is the red-dish first-magnitude star, Betelgeuse (or Rigel) and the second-magnitude star, Saiph. To the south is the white Rigel. Orion is the Great Hunter; Betelgeuse marks his right shoulder, Rigel his left foot, and a Winter line of stars running off from the Belt in the general direction of Rigel represents the jeweled scabbard of the sword.

Scabbard Star Is Hazy
On good clear nights one of the stars of the scabbard will be observed to be somewhat hazy. In appearance, quite different from the other stars. This is by no means an optical illusion, for the haziness is due to the fact that this is really no star at all, but the famous Nebula of Orion, one of the very finest sights in the heavens for anyone who has access to even a small telescope. With the aid of a telescope, the nebula will be seen as a luminous cloud of irregular shape, occupying a considerable portion of the sky. In it are a number of real stars, which probably are the nuclei of the nebular structure, condensed masses or nuclei. Long-exposure photographs, which bring out parts of the nebula too faint even for the eye, show that the nebula is extremely beautiful. The naked eye sees only the brightest portion of the nebula, for the entire thing occupies an area of sky equal to about four full moons. Due to its enormous distance from us, its actual size, not the apparent size, is so tremendous that numbers would convey no meaning to our brain; but if the sun and its entire system of planets were placed within the volume occupied by this glowing mass, it would appear relatively smaller than a pinhead in the largest room the reader ever entered.

Heit Serves As Guidepost
The Belt may be used as a guidepost for the recognition of several stars. Extending its line to the west it points toward Aldebaran, the far from which will also be found the nucleus cluster of the Pleiades, and extending it eastward it points out to us the giant star Sirius, the Great Dog, than which there is no brighter star in the entire heavens. Southward from Sirius is Procyon, the Lesser Dog, also a first-magnitude star, and northeastward

Careless Mothers Contrasted with the Tidy In Striking Demonstration by Children

Children teach their mothers in the Mohawk Brighton district of Cincinnati, where the national social unit organization is demonstrating an unusual type of community organization.

The above picture shows children demonstrating the contrast between the careless mother and the tidy mother. Nurses of the district organized as part of a neighborhood council representative of city blocks an expert groups, are conducting a campaign for health education and better living conditions. Children of the district have helped them to dramatize conditions as they exist and as they ought to be and to present them in graphic form to the mothers of the district. Miss Ella Phillips Crandall, secretary of the National Organization for Public Health Nursing, and the executive committee of that organization are serving as advisers in nursing organization to the Cincinnati experiment.

AT LAST! A PERFECT WAY TO WHITEN TEETH

A woman's beauty is completely spoiled by stained, unhealthy or broken teeth. A smile, which ought to be such a bright thing, should reveal an even row of perfectly white teeth. But, unfortunately, few sets of teeth are so perfect for the simple reason that brushing with the usual dentifrices is not an effective means of removing stains, and many dread the periodical visit to the dentist to have their teeth scraped.

All teeth are covered with thin films or "plaques" which are bound to become discolored in time if only tooth powder or paste is depended upon to keep them spotless. Many have learned, however, of a remedy which is a veritable wonder-worker in removing the brownish or grayish stain from the teeth. Also that once removed, stains and tartar will never return if this harmful preparation is used only a week, as the name suggests. Once-a-Week Tooth Polish can be had in a convenient package at any drug store, and just a little need be put on the toothbrush. Parents should begin using it on the little ones' teeth when the teeth first come through the gums.

WITH THE WOMEN OF TODAY

Women on the stock market and in the financial world, in banks, and working as office assistants in brokerage houses are not new or unusual, but women on the curb market are a distinct and novel innovation, according to latest reports.

One would expect the woman curb operator to be a crafty, masculine-looking woman at least past 30 years of age, but Miss Neumann does not live up to one's expectations. She is a short little person who is still in her teens. Despite her youth she has been three years in the "bull and bear" game. She operates for one of the biggest stock houses in the country and she handles her own customers. She uses her own code and handles over 500 calls daily.

Miss Neumann, when asked how she liked her work, said that if the only thing left for a woman with a thrill in it would only try the stock exchange she would change her mind. It is the most thrilling and fascinating work there is," is Miss Neumann's verdict.

WORKING WOMEN

The International Working Women's congress, at its closing session recently, decided to postpone the whole question of permanent organization until next year.

The next meeting will be in conjunction with the next session of the international labor conference organized under the treaty of Versailles.

Mrs. Raymond Robins of Chicago was elected temporary president of the congress and Mrs. Mary Schwartz of New York secretary.

Special provision for the representation of the British delegates in the new organization of the congress was made at the suggestion of Margaret Bondfield of the British delegation.

It had been agreed that one of the vice presidents should represent both the Slavic and the Teutonic peoples, but the British delegates insisted that the position of the central powers was too important for such divided representation, and it was agreed to hold open one vice presidency to be filled later by a woman chosen by German, Austrian and Russian representatives.

Miss Belle Neumann is shown here signalling from her office to one of her assistants in the street.

HERE AND THERE

Edith Beals and Ethlyn Thayer are members of Michigan's forest fire-fighting brigade.

Twenty-one American women will receive medals according to the latest list of citations announced by the French government.

A woman's chance of marriage is greatest between the ages of 20 and 25 years, when 62 percent of the marriages take place.

Mrs. Ethel Parks, who is in charge of the financial department of the democratic national committee, studied law before entering politics.

WHO'S WHO in the Day's News

GENERAL SHERWOOD

Gen. Isaac R. Sherwood, a veteran of the house of representatives from Ohio, does not like the idea of conferring high rank on soldiers who do not get into the battle line. He made a speech on the floor the other day in reference to the woods. General Pershing had been guilty of brutality to private soldiers, and a accusation that was made by Representative Schall.

General Sherwood's war record shows that he took part in forty-three battles and was 723 days under fire during the Civil war.

He feels that in those days the "general" was a regular fighting man and he produced some figures to prove it to the house. According to General Sherwood's record, 121 generals, both major and brigadier, were killed during the Civil war, seventy-five on the Confederate side and forty-six on the Union side. The casualties among generals on the Union side would have been heavier, he explained, if it had not been the policy of Secretary of War Stanton to place rank-and-file colonels in command of brigades.

General Sherwood was born at Stanford, N. Y., August 13, 1835. He was educated at Antioch college in Ohio, and at the Ohio law college in Cleveland, from which he graduated in 1859. He served throughout the entire Civil war and was a brigadier general at its close. He was secretary of the state of Ohio, 1893-73; member of congress, 1873-75; probate judge, 1875-84; editor Toledo Commercial, 1885; Cleveland Leader, 1885-88; Toledo Journal, 1871-83; Carlton News-Democrat, 1888-95. Since 1907 he has represented the Toledo district in the house of representatives.

SULLIVAN HURT, J. H. S. SHIFTS FOR TODAY'S GAME AT WALWORTH

Handicapped by the probable loss of Sullivan at left end, Janesville high journeyed to Walworth at 12:45 this afternoon to play the last game of the football season. Sullivan sustained a split finger a few days ago when, while setting up, placed his foot on a ball, which he then stepped on, and the ball crashed into his hand.

Barriago will enter today's game in Sullivan's place, although Sullivan is quite anxious to go in and make up for his playing of last week. Janesville's left end was the weak spot in the game last Saturday with Beloit, and Barriago will have a job on his hands to hold his own.

Several shifts have been made in the line-up for the game. Instead, who played such a good game last week will take Gages place at left-guard. Powers, captain, will play right half, Dobson going to sub. Raubacker will be down at full.

A large crowd of rooters, given a half holiday to go to the game, left at 1:15 this afternoon in autos for the contest.

EXPECT 25,000 FANS AT BADGER GAME

Chicago, Nov. 21.—Record breaking crowds are expected to turn out to witness the final game of the western conference football race Saturday.

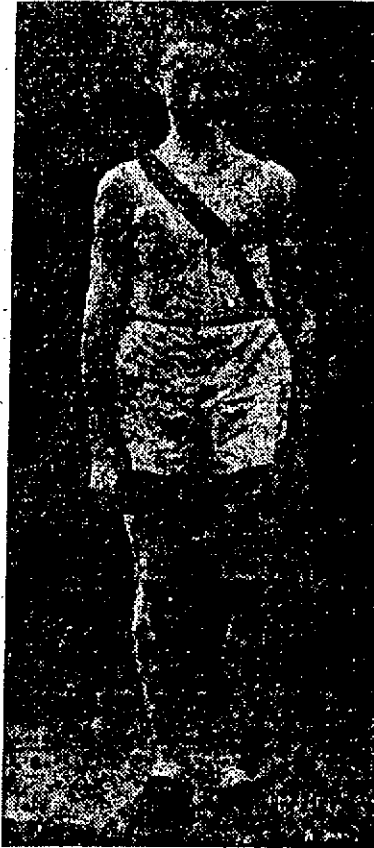

The advance sale of the Chicago-Wisconsin game to be played here had reached $32,000 Thursday night with indications that it would exceed $37,000. Every reserved seat has been sold. Preparations have been made to handle a crowd of 25,000.

All reserved seats for the championship contest between Ohio and Illinois at Columbus have been sold for several days and standing room is at a premium. The Michigan-Minnesota game at Ann Arbor will attract a crowd of approximately 30,000.

The advance sale has been so heavy that extra seats have been constructed.

Badger Cross Country Runners Expect To Figure Heavily in Big Ten Meet Saturday

With a victory over Minnesota to their credit and a defeat at Ames chalked up against them, the Badger cross-country runners have their hopes pinned on the Big Ten meet to be held at Columbus, O., Nov. 22. In this conference classic they will meet the pick of the distance men of the middle west, and incidentally will have a chance to wipe out their score with the Iowa runners.

Three men of Coach Orenahan's title contenders will run their last cross-country race under Wisconsin colors in the Big Ten event. All of the men have won points for Wisconsin on the cinder track, and all are planning to give the best that is in them on the Columbus course.

Capt. Allen Burr has won his "A" in both track and cross-country, taking his letter in the two-mile event on the track team. Last year he placed second in the conference cross-country meet, in which Minnesota, Ames, and Wisconsin were the only contenders. This season Burr has been the leading performer for the Badgers, winning first honors against Minnesota and leading all his team mates home in the event at Ames. The captain is a Waterloo man and is studying agriculture.

Gordon Crump is a Madison product, who won his "W" in track, and is running his first year on the cross-country team. He finished second in the 1918 conference mile event, and third in the two-mile on the same day. He also placed in both the half and the mile in various dual meets as a member of the track team, and this season won second in the cross-country meet against Minnesota. Crump is a commerce student.

Bernard Meyers has yet to win his letter, but he has gained recognition as a runner by winning the two-mile against Illinois in a dual track meet. In cross-country the Kenosha lad has a second place to his credit, scored in a dual meet against Chicago.

Brothers and Dennis, both juniors, and Ramsey, a sophomore, are the other mainstays of the Badger team. Brothers furnished the thrill of the Minnesota meet with a phenomenal spurt at the finish, crossing the line in fraction of a step ahead of the leading Gopher.

Doepel, a reserve end, was shifted to Carney's wing. If he plays and should weaken, there are available Al Mohr, the guard, and Smith.

Ralph Fletcher is still limping and the Illinois are not counting on having his play very long. On top of all these happenings, Zupke lost his trainer, Matt Bullock, who could not accompany his charges on account of a death in his family.

MINNESOTA LEAVES FOR ANN ARBOR; STAGE GETTING SET

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 21.—The Minnesota football team left here today for Ann Arbor for its game tomorrow with Michigan. Coach Williams stopped off here to permit his men to get a good night's rest. Twenty-three players were in the party.

The Illinois eleven also passed through here on its way to battle with Ohio State at Columbus Saturday for the "Big Ten" championship. Coach Zupke players he had to make a last minute shift of Carney from left end to fullback, sending Doepel, a second string man, to the wing position. Crangle, giant fullback, is suffering from blood poison and probably will not be able to play. Carney weighs 183 pounds, however, and has had fullback experience.

O'DOWD AND GIBBONS WILL SCRAP TONIGHT

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 20.—Middle-weight Champion Mike O'Dowd and Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul phantom, today completed their training for their ten round bout here tonight. So far as boxing is concerned. Both fighters declared they were at weight and in top notch condition. Twin City newspapers announced that the prevailing odds have increased to 10 to 7, on Gibbons, as a consequence of his improved showing this week.

Saginaw, Mich., Nov. 21.—Capt. Bob Roper of Chicago, outboxed Frank Moran of Pittsburgh in 5 out of 10 rounds Thursday night. Three were even and the eighth went to Moran.

Football Tomorrow

Wisconsin vs. Chicago at Chicago. Illinois vs. Ohio State at Columbus. Minnesota vs. Michigan at Ann Arbor.

Northwestern vs. Beloit at Naper, Ill. Iowa vs. Ames at Iowa City. Marquette vs. Wabash at Milwaukee.

CRANGLE MAY NOT PLAY FOR MAROONS

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 21.—Can Jack Crangle, Illinois' great fullback, play against Ohio? This was the question uppermost in the minds of the Illinois as they sped Columbusward last night. The big sophomore has blood poisoning, which may prevent him from starting Saturday.

Of course there is hope that he can be started, but Zupke, fearful of being caught without a middle back, made a rapid transformation tonight of Charlie Carney, left end, into a reserve fullback. Carney has previously played in the back field. He weighs 183 pounds and will make a pretty good fullback if Crangle is on the bench, which, of course, the Illinois pray won't happen.

Doepel, a reserve end, was shifted to Carney's wing. If he plays and should weaken, there are available Al Mohr, the guard, and Smith.

Ralph Fletcher is still limping and the Illinois are not counting on having his play very long. On top of all these happenings, Zupke lost his trainer, Matt Bullock, who could not accompany his charges on account of a death in his family.

CAGEBALL, HANDBALL AND VOLLEYBALL IS PLAN OF LOCAL Y. M.

Basketball, handball and volleyball promise a rousing season at the local Y. M. C. A. While waiting for a committee to be formed to approve his program, Physical Director Hugh Craig is formulating his plans. Today circular letters were sent out to every member of the boys' gym classes asking each one to get busy and make application if he desires to get in the running for any or all of the three games. Senior class senior high school boys' class, and juniors are being called upon to consider whether they care to enter.

A senior gym class league, a senior high school league and a junior league will be organized in basketball. Though everything naturally depends upon the response to the letters, it is hoped that enough young men will come out in the senior gym night class to form a league of six basketball teams to play a schedule of 18 games, each team meeting another three times. The first game will be played on December 1. With two nights of cageing a week, the league will play until the middle of February. Present plans are to present a silver loving cup to the winning team.

Bronze medals for the senior group of high school boys will be run up on the same basis as the senior gym games. This league will very likely be composed of four teams, play starting on December 2. Two days a week will be used for the schedule, each team meeting the other three times, making a run of 12 games. To the winning teams handsome bronze medals will be given.

In these basketball tournaments, schedules will be arranged and teams chosen with a view to matching the men evenly and at the same time providing sufficient subs to permit of a fast and interesting race. Playing of the game will not in any way interfere with the regular work of the classes but the time ordinarily taken for recreation period will be utilized.

Handball Tournament

After the singles are run off, a tournament of couples will be played in handball. This will be run upon a percentage scheme whereby challenges can come only from lower team to higher. In this way the cellar couple must challenge the team holding the position immediately above it; it cannot play a team any higher than that. In the working of the idea, therefore, only a team standing in second place will be able to meet that in first. When the first place team loses it drops to what ever position in the race that its percentage calls for and the next time it plays must tackle the team immediately above it. The actual working out of this plan creates intense interest and bitter rivalry. A permanent cup of a size large enough to permit each year's winner to be engraved upon it will be the prize for the champions.

Early in December, a banquet of the older boys and gym men will be held at the Y. M. C. A. at which time the athletic program for the winter will be discussed in more detail. Mr. Craig is working for this event in an endeavor to make it a signal success.
